Hold onto your heart strings because this lovely home is sure to give them a decent tug! Built in 1986 on a 594m2 block (approx.) the love and care with which this property has been maintained over the years is evident.

Offering two living and dining areas, two good-sized bedrooms and two bathrooms, the symmetry is perfect. We love the well-designed central kitchen ideally positioned to create an easy connection between the formal and casual living areas, each creating comfortable spaces in which to dine and relax.

The casual family living space joins the paved patio creating a natural flow for indoor/outdoor entertaining. Gather your tribe because this is a tranquil spot to spend a beautiful evening with friends and family. Enjoy a refreshing dip in the pool surrounded by lush, established gardens
