

73 Old Pelham Street Ethelton SA

3 2 2

This expansive home was lovingly built in 1972, whilst partially renovated it still has character and charm of the yesteryear

This property has been in the same Family since being built and longs for another family to enjoy the space that it has to offer whilst still being low maintenance,

Ethelton is a quiet suburb with beautiful houses, lots of trees and ovals and recreation facilities, with a Community feel and nestled between Port Adelaide and Semaphore you are always within walking distance of good restaurants and cafes.

Access to public transport (bus and train) is handy for getting into the city and the Port River
