From the formal entry where leadlight windows set the mood, this exquisite four bedroom home captivates and calms with a spacious interior exuding warmth and comfort at every turn.

Traditional character elements add elegance and romance to the formal lounge and master suite while the sheer size of the family bathroom reminds you of its heritage. All four bedrooms issue blissful invitations to the land of nod, before a contemporary approach to open plan living delivers a fresh perspective with modern comforts and light-filled garden outlooks.
